First Forecast of the Sugarcane Crop of Bengal, 1943-44.

(Note. On an average of the five years ending 1941-42, the area under sugarcane in the territory to which this forecast relates has represented some 7·9 per cent. of the total area under sugarcane in India.)

Character of the season.—The weather and its effect on the cultivation and growth of the crop have been fairly favourable although the paucity of timely rainfall at places shortly after the planting had some adverse effect on the proper growth of the crop. The present condition of the crop is reported to be satisfactory.

Area planted.—The total area planted this year is estimated at 333,700 acres as against 299,100 and 302,600 acres shown last year in the corresponding and final forecasts respectively. The acreage as now estimated represents an increase of some 10·3 per cent. over the final forecast figure of last year.

NOTICE.

No. 4515P.—4th September 1943.—Applications are invited for admission to the Prince of Wales's Royal Indian Military College at Dehra Dun. The College provides a public school education on English lines for Indian and Anglo-Indian youths who desire subsequently to enter a Cadet College, with a view to obtaining Commissions in the Indian Land Forces, the Indian Air Force or the Royal Indian Navy. It is intended for those who wish to make one of these services their profession in life, and parents or guardians of candidates will be required to furnish a declaration to this effect. The course of study at the College will be such that should a boy fail in the competitive examination for admission to a Cadet College or for entry in the Royal Indian Navy he will be in as favourable position for entry to a University as if he had been educated at an ordinary school. In this respect it is important to note that the College has been recognised by the Cambridge Syndicate for the award of the Cambridge School Certificate "A".

2. The next winter term of the College will commence from the 20th January 1944. For admission to this term a candidate must have attained the age of 11 years and be under 12 years on the 20th January 1944. This rule may be relaxed by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in the case of any boy under 14 years of age provided he has reached a standard of education which will enable him to take a place in the College appropriate to a boy of his age. The privilege will, however, be allowed in special cases only. Only Indian and Anglo-Indian unmarried boys who are natives of, or domiciled in, Bengal are eligible. The fee is Rs. 1,500 for each school year payable in two equal instalments of Rs. 750 each, one at the beginning of each term. Applications are to be made in prescribed form to reach the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Home Department, Writers' Buildings, Calcutta, not later than the 30th October 1943. Forms will be available from that office on request.

3. Detailed particulars are available from the Regulations for the Prince of Wales's Royal Indian Military College, Dehra Dun, copies of which can be had on payment from the Manager of Publications, Delhi.

4. The Government of Bengal propose to offer three Scholarships, each of Rs. 1,000 per annum, and tenable for six years, to candidates who are admitted into the Prince of Wales's Royal Indian Military College and whose parents and guardians cannot afford to meet the entire cost of maintaining the candidate at the College. One of these Scholarships is reserved for a Muslim candidate. The entire cost of educating a boy at the College is estimated at Rs. 2,000 per annum including the College fee. Half of this amount will be borne by the Provincial Government by award of a Scholarship and the other half will have to be borne by the parent or guardian. Applications for these Scholarships will also be in prescribed form copies of which, along with the rules, can be had on request from the office of the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Home (Political) Department, Writers' Buildings, Calcutta. The application for a Scholarship will be received and considered by Government after the candidate has completed the first term at the College, and has shown satisfactory conduct and progress.

S. B. BAPAT, Dy. Secy.
